The Inside Scoop

Welcome to our April issue of IYB!

Finally, there are whispers of spring in the air! The Easter season is upon us and soon it will be Passover. That means it is time to look forward to spring and summer events with the Central PA Chamber!

Please refer to the next page for several important events on the Central PA Chamber calendar: the 23rd Annual Golf Tournament and Golf Ball Drop! return to the Bucknell Golf Club this June. If you are interested in golfing, volunteering, or sponsoring this event, please get in touch with us! We appreciate all your support of this fundraiser for our Business and Education Association.

Back by popular demand, we are thrilled to announce the second annual wine tour. Once again you'll be able to enjoy a chauffeured tour, courtesy of Susquehanna Valley Limousine, with stops at four Central PA Chamber member wineries. Some details are still forthcoming, so please stay tuned for registration specifics.

Finally, we are thrilled to host a special arts & crafts function, just in-time to treat your mom for Mother's Day!

On page four you can read about our upcoming Raising the Board class. This is the class to take if you are currently serving or interested in serving on a board of directors. It's a great source of information and confidence booster so you can stand out in the boardroom!

We also highlight everyone's favorite Chamber function: Breakfast Briefings for this month's "Did You Know?" on page 11 and 18.

Happy reading and hope to see you at the next event!

Lindig Lewisburg Foundation Fund at the First Community Foundation Partnership of Pennsylvania Grant Supports Arts Council’s 2024 Music in the Park Concerts

LEWISBURG – The Lewisburg Arts Council is pleased to announce the award of a $2,000 grant from the Lindig Lewisburg Foundation Fund at the First Community Foundation Partnership of Pennsylvania.

Funding from this grant will help cover costs of this summer’s Music in the Park concert series. This summertime favorite returns to downtown Lewisburg to the recently-renovated Hufnagle Park, taking advantage of the brand-new Event Venue there.

This year’s summer series will offer one performance each month, at 7 p.m. on the first Wednesday of June, July, and August.

On Wednesday, June 5, our friends and neighbors from Riverstage will preview selections from their summer musical, "Oliver!" The Penn Central Wind Band's patriotic-themed concert, which will be held on July 3, is always a crowd-pleasing hit. And, in a nod to the 55th anniversary of Woodstock, the summer’s final concert on Wednesday, August 7, will feature The Folk Justice Band.

The Lewisburg Arts Council hopes you will join us in thanking the Lindig Lewisburg Foundation Fund for making this year’s concert series possible. By coming together to enjoy the gift of music, we honor the generosity and community-minded spirit of the late Charles F. Lindig.

In his will, Mr. Lindig set aside a portion of his estate for the benefit of projects directed towards the religious, charitable, educational, cultural, recreational or economic welfare of the Borough of Lewisburg. He wanted this fund to serve as a living memorial to his grandparents, Charles F. Lindig and Sarah Bobb Lindig and to his parents, Fred W. Lindig and Nettie Walter Lindig. According to his will, he did this, "In grateful appreciation of the opportunities accorded to my family by the Community of Lewisburg."

Diversification does not guarantee a profit or protect against loss in a declining market. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. We're Here for Your Business, and Your Mental Health, Too!

Next month is Mental Health Awareness month. The Central PA Chamber is hosting a Seminar to bring attention to this much needed misunderstood topic on Friday, May 10, 2024. Details and registration available at www.centralpachamber.com/events or call 570 742 7341.

Mental health is something many people struggle with daily, but are afraid to seek help for fear of being labeled as crazy, unfit, or incapable, and therefore they suffer in silence. Mental health is a state of mental well-being that enables people to cope with the stresses of life, realize their abilities, learn well, work well, and contribute to their family and community.

Some signs of poor mental health can be feeling sad, confusion, inability to concentrate, excessive fears and worries, extreme feelings of guilt, withdrawal from friends, low energy, trouble sleeping, stress, trouble relating to people, major eating habit changes, suicidal thoughts and more. Most mental health issues don't improve on their own, and if untreated, may get worse over time and cause serious problems. Those at risk for mental health issues may have experienced stressful life situations, have an ongoing medical condition, had traumatic experiences, history of childhood abuse or neglect, limited healthy relationships and more.

Mental health issues are common. It is said that about 1 in 5 adults have a mental health issue in any given year. It can begin at any age, from childhood through later adulthood. The effects of mental health issues can be temporary or long lasting. Mental health issues are the leading cause of disability. Left untreated can cause severe emotional, behavioral, and physical health problems.

There are no sure ways to prevent mental health issues. However, taking steps to control stress, to increase your resilience, and to boost low self-esteem may help keep symptoms under control. The first step is to acknowledge the issue and seek help. Don't allow shame or fear to keep you from seeking help and living your best life. Self-care is critical.

Recently, there was a story about me in the local newspaper—nothing out of the ordinary for my role at the Chamber. However, what did happen a few days after the story was published, allowed me to write this column. A longtime former member of the Central PA Chamber sent me an email congratulating me on the article, and said this: "I loved the article about you in yesterday's Valley Life section of The Daily Item, especially your own honest words that were quoted. The word, REAL, always comes to mind when I think of you."

Let me be REAL with YOU now: I've allowed myself to overcome the fear of seeking help and addressing my mental health issues (depression and anxiety) several years ago. It was so hard for me to speak the words of my mental health struggles to my primary physician that I wrote a note and handed it to her at my appointment. To say I am "cured" is not accurate; but to say I am living my best life with accepting my struggle and my triggers, taking my daily medication, learning to self-love and perform self-care. To realize that I am a child of God and there is NO SHAME in that.

Please, if you are facing mental health struggles seek help and know you can lean on me.

"We are excited to welcome Jeff to the Service 1st team," said Colleen Phillips, Vice President Marketing, Service 1st. Evangelical Community Hospital

LEWISBURG, PA

– The Family Place, Evangelical

Community Hospital's obstetrics unit, has further advanced its staff education for safe practices at the Hospital, offering newborns and their mothers the best possible care.

The Family Place staff members completed the three necessary phases of the PA Sleep Program to be one of the more than 30 hospitals in Pennsylvania who educate mothers on safe infant sleep practices.

The PA Safe Sleep program was created specifically to combat sleep-related deaths of infants in Pennsylvania. Based on guidance from the American Academy of Pediatrics, the program is evidence-based and works with staff on quality improvement, Safe Sleep Nursing policies, training as Subject Matter Experts, data collection interactive staff education, and patient education materials. The Family Place clinical nurses have all received the necessary training to become subject matter experts, assisting patients with the ABC's of safe sleep—babies should always be placed to sleep ALONE, on their BACK, and in their own CRIB.

The Family Place also received the Quality Improvement Award from the Pennsylvania Perinatal Quality Collaborative (PA PQC), which is funded by the Pennsylvania Department of Drug and Alcohol Programs and administered by the Jewish Healthcare Foundation. To earn the award, The Family Place successfully completed five milestones demonstrating how The Family Place is implementing best practices and using data to improve care for pregnant and post-partum women with substance use.

The Family Place has been an active participant with the PA PQC since its inception in 2019. In 2021, The Family Place received its first Quality Improvement Award and has continued to meet the necessary milestones to earn additional awards in the following quarters. The most recent awards were earned by meeting milestones for the period of July 1, 2023 through October 31, 2023. Evangelical is one of 63 birth hospitals/NICUs across the Commonwealth striving to complete these milestones and earn this PA PQC recognition.

The milestones included completing a PA PQC learning session, submission of Quality Improvement Report Out showing work related to implementing key interviews, completing a quarterly survey, submitting necessary aggregated data on process and outcome measures, and communicating the team's impact for patient internally and to the community.

As a result, The Family Place has been awarded $10,000 to further support efforts to build the care team's infrastructure for improving the identification of and care for pregnant and post-partum individuals with substance use and neonatal abstinence syndrome.

Bowen Agency Realtors

SELINSGROVE – Kristine M Horten, agent at Bowen Agency Realtors in Selinsgrove recently obtained her Associate Broker's license and has been promoted to the position of Office Manager of the Lewisburg office.

Horten has been a top producing agent with the company since 2017 and will continue serving the real estate needs of buyers and sellers in the Central Susquehanna Valley with the help of her assistant Heidi Dunigan.

The Lewisburg office has been open by appointment only since late 2023 but will officially re-open for regular business hours in April. A grand reopening celebration is being planned. Along with Horten and Dunigan, agents working from the Lewisburg office will be new team members Zach Lee and Calvin Beiler as well as veteran agents Chris Arnold and Hannah Arnold.

Says Horten, "The amount of support and encouragement I've received over the past months from (Broker and President) Larry Johnson and the rest of the Bowen team has reiterated to me that I'm exactly where I belong. I am looking forward to this new chapter in my career." Larry Johnson says, "Kristine's work ethic and people skills combined with her success in the business will make her a great leader for our Lewisburg office."

Community Giving Foundation

DANVILLE – Community Giving Foundation: Danville will honor the 2024 recipient of the Robert N. Pursel Award for "Neighbor of the Year" during the Neighbors Helping Neighbors Event (formerly "Holiday Happenings") on Saturday, April 20th at the Pine Barn Inn. The event benefits the Neighbors Helping Neighbors endowment fund at the Foundation, which supports unmet needs in the Danville community by granting to nonprofit organizations making a difference right here. Tickets for the event are on sale now at csgiving.org/neighbors.

The event committee is pleased to announce Bob Stoudt as the 2024 recipient of the Robert N. Pursel Award. Through his leadership of the Montour Area Recreation Commission (MARC) and his vast volunteer service, Stoudt is a valued fixture in the Danville community. Since assuming the role of MARC Director in 2010, the organization has grown under Stoudt's leadership to manage multiple park and trail properties in Montour and Columbia Counties. Stoudt and his team have worked to significantly expand Montour County's outdoor recreation opportunities, including: operating the Montour Preserve since 2015 (in partnership with Talen Energy); construction of the concrete skatepark at the Hess Recreation Area; construction of more than eleven miles of mountain biking trails at the Hopewell Park/Danville Borough Farm Trail System (in partnership with the Central Susquehanna Hammers Interscholastic Mountain Biking Team and others); development of the Danville Riverfront and Open Space Master Plan (in partnership with the Danville Business Alliance); organizing and directing numerous races and special events; and many other projects.

Stoudt's commitment to volunteerism in the community has led to his involvement with: Montour County Emergency Management Agency; Central Pennsylvania Drone Response Team; Community Giving Foundation: Danville; Columbia Montour Chamber of Commerce; SEDA-COG Metropolitan Planning Organization; SEDA-COG Middle Susquehanna Active Transportation Committee; Danville Heritage Festival Committee; Going Gold Committee; Montour County Recreation Authority; Columbia Montour Partnership for Community Development; Columbia Montour Visitors Bureau; Warrior Run Community Corporations Pathways Committee; Friends of Allegheny Wilderness; Friends of Milton State Park; SEDA-Foundation; Watsontown Borough Parks Renovation Committee; Western Pennsylvania Conservancy; and the Boy Scouts of America.

Stoudt grew up near Turbotville and graduated from Warrior Run High School in 1991. After attending Bloomsburg University and Indiana State University, he moved back to Watsontown in 2002. His wife, Becky, is a CRNA and Geisinger's Associate Dean of Nursing Student Education. They currently live in Liberty Township, Montour County, with their three children.

For a full biography of Bob Stoudt, a list of previous Pursel Award recipients, and more information about the April 20th event, visit csgiving.org/neighbors.

There's More to Breakfast Briefings Than Just Breakfast!

Hello, to April IYB Readers. This month our "Did You Know" feature is Breakfast Briefings.

The Central PA Chamber of Commerce has been hosting Breakfast Briefings for many years with variations to the program happening each year to make them better for our members and prospective members. In this column, I would like to help you understand the two different briefings we hold now, and why you should consider attending—or even hosting one!

In 2024, the Central PA Chamber will be hosting eight on-site Breakfast Briefings. On-site means they are held at our location of 30 Lawton Lane, Milton PA. Each breakfast requires a business/organization sponsor. These sponsors get the opportunity to address the attendees and other benefits. Breakfasts are limited to 30 attendees; this gives plenty of time for everyone to deliver their 28 second "Elevator Pitch" to all in attendance. Attendees will also have the opportunity to network while they are enjoying their hot breakfast and again after the event has concluded. This gives them the chance to exchange business cards and even set up meetings to collaborate.

The Chamber will also be holding four off-site Breakfast Briefings this year too. These events give the opportunity for sponsors to host 30 attendees at their business/organization location. Hosts of these briefings need to have the space to accommodate thirty guests and provide breakfasts for all who attend as well. Hosts have 5 minutes at the beginning of the program to speak to the attendees and at the conclusion of the event offer a tour of their facility. Our most recent off-site breakfast was at the Milton Area High School where attendees got to visit their CTE Programs and meet the students that participate in them.

Breakfast Briefings are open to the Central PA Chamber members and to businesses/organizations that have not yet joined the Chamber. Registering for any of these events is a must as they sell out quickly! Remember you can send anyone from your staff and team to these events!

If you are interested in sponsoring a Breakfast Briefing, contact me to give you more information on the benefits and requirements. All 2024 Breakfasts have been spoken for, but I will have 2025 dates later this year.

All Breakfasts for 2024 are on the Chamber website and you can register now for any of them throughout the year! We look forward to having breakfast with you and learning more about your business/organization!
